

Come and join us for Dying Matters Week in Tameside!

Monday 14th – Friday 18th May 2018

The goal is to create a friendly space for people to ask questions about end of life care issues, such as making a will, planning a funeral or coping with bereavement.

Just 30% had let someone know their funeral wishes

Just 35% of adults said they had made a will

Monday – 11-2pm, Age UK Ashton, Information Stand, activities

Tuesday – 12-2pm Tameside Hospital Restaurant

Thursday – 12-2pm Ladysmith building, Tameside Hospital –Cake and conversation

Friday – 2-4pm, The Grafton Community Centre, Hyde SK14 2AX1

Our main event - Cake & Conversation café, craft activities, virtual Art of Dying art gallery, information from Funeral Directors, Celebrants and solicitors, local charities and an uplifting performance by Tameside Voices, our amazing local choir.

Just 7% had written down wishes or preferences about the care they would want if they couldn't make decisions

Just 25% had asked a family member about their end of life wishes

For further details on this project please visit contact Fiona Horrocks 0161 342 7770

Source: Comres DM2017

Dying Matters is a coalition which aims to help people talk more openly about dying, death and bereavement and to make plans for the end of life www.dyingmatters.org